

THE KENAI PENINSULA

ALASKA'S PLAYGROUND

DISCOVER WHAT ALASKANS ALREADY KNOW...

The Kenai is not behind safety glass, or a deck rail. Your face feels the cold wind on the train and your heart pounds with the strike of a monster fish. Your adrenaline rushes at the sight of a bear, and your skin chills as you step on a glacier. Nothing about the Kenai Peninsula is formal or stuffy. In fact, no other destination offers such an up close and personal Alaskan experience. With over 15,000 square miles of extraordinary adventure and excitement to choose from, even the rest of the state comes here when they need a reminder of why they moved to Alaska in the first place. That's why we are known as Alaska's Playground.

SIX MILE CREEK WHITEWATER RAFTING

Your adventure will begin with a 1.5 hour drive from Anchorage to the Kenai Peninsula on the Seward Highway, named an All American Highway and a Scenic Byway. The Seward Highway is alive with spectacular Alaskan scenery and wildlife. Journey alongside the Turnagain Arm, rivers, lakes and a glacial fjord, through rainforests and snowcapped mountain passes, past glaciers, and into stunning beauty all along the way.

Set in the Chugach National forest near Hope Alaska, Six mile Creek is a run for whitewater enthusiasts desiring the highest difficulty level in a guided whitewater trip. Dropping over 50 feet per mile as it flows out of the Chugach Mountains, Six mile Creek has cut its way through three separate canyons.

paddles with the guide sitting in the back giving paddle commands. Sixmile has such an abundance of whitewater that one rapid will quickly fade from memory as you anxiously look down river preparing for the next. Precipitous drops, thundering hydraulics and powerful waves follow one after the other in quick succession. With each succeeding canyon, we'll encounter whitewater of increasing difficulty. With rapids known as "Staircase," "Suckhole," "Merry-Go-Round" and "Jaws," the third and most difficult canyon has six rapids rated at Class IV+ and Class V. We offer two choices on Six Mile Creek. You can do the Class IV Two Canyon Run or the Class IV and V Three Canyon Run.

Wear comfortable clothing, you will be provided with a dry suit and all safety equipment. Participants must be able to pass a river safety swim test. Must be a minimum of 15 years of age. Lunch Provided.

www.chugachoutdoorcenter.com
1-907-277-RAFT

DEPARTS:

- 9:00a.m. from the Dena'ina Center

RETURNS:

- 5:00p.m. to the Dena'ina Center

*If DOA is cancelled because of unforeseen conditions an alternate DOA will be provided.

WHY CHOOSE THE KENAI?

While many regions of Alaska offer glimpses of Alaska's majesty, The Kenai immerses you in it. How would you like your guests to define their Alaskan visit? Will they feel like sightseers, or adventure seekers? Window shoppers, or Alaskan insiders? When they go home, will they say they have been to Alaska, or they have experienced it? The Kenai is a proven group destination that not only offers the unsurpassed mountains, glaciers and wildlife that people come to Alaska for, but delivers them in such a way that leaves an impression on their soul.

Rising over 300 feet in places, towering canyon walls are draped in a lush carpet of old growth rain-forest with cascading waterfalls pouring in from the sides. Crystal clear water with healthy salmon runs make this a river runner's dream. Safely running Sixmile's narrowly constricted passageways takes a coordinated team effort with technical and precise paddling. Working closely with your guide, you'll be paddling while (s)he handles the oars. This oar paddling combination gives you power when you need it, as well as precise maneuvering capability. Everyone

CONTACTS:

Kenai Peninsula Tourism Marketing Council
Shanon Davis: shanon@kenaipeninsula.org

Chugach Outdoor Center
info@chugachoutdoorcenter.com

